Annex A – Definitions

"Controlling Person "-

1. In a body of persons which is incorporated –
 - 1.1. an individual with the ability to direct a corporation's activity, alone or together with others or through them, directly or indirectly, including ability deriving from the corporation's articles of association, by virtue of a written or oral contract or otherwise, or ability deriving from any other source, excluding ability deriving merely from filling the position of officer of the corporation;
 - 1.2. without derogating from the generality of paragraph (1.1), an individual shall be deemed to control a corporation if he holds 25% or more of a certain type of means of control, and there is no other person holding means of control of the same type in a percentage that exceeds his holdings percentage; in such regard, "holding" - including holding together with others, within the meaning thereof in the Securities Law, 5728-1968;
 - 1.3. without derogating from the generality of paragraphs (1.1) and (1.2), in the case of a corporation in which there is no individual as aforesaid, the chairman of the company's board of directors, the holder of a parallel office and the CEO shall be deemed to control a corporation, and if there aren't any - the officer who has effective control of the corporation.
2. In a body of persons which is not incorporated - as provided in paragraph (1), mutatis mutandis.
3. In a trusteeship governed by the provisions of Chapter Four-2, Part D of the Income Tax Ordinance (the "Ordinance") - the creator, trustee, trusteeship protector or beneficiary as defined in section 75C of the Ordinance, and if any of the aforesaid is not an individual - the individual who have controlling thereof as provided in paragraphs (1) or (2) as the case may be;
4. In a legal arrangement that is not a trusteeship as aforesaid in paragraph (3) - an individual in the legal arrangement is similar to that of any of those mentioned in paragraph (3).

"Means of control"

In a corporation - any one of the following:

1. The right to appoint authorized signatories in the corporation's name, who have the ability to direct, through the signatory right, the corporation's activity, save for a right of appointment granted to the board of directors or to the general meeting of a company or to parallel organs of another corporation;
2. The right to vote at the general meeting of a company or a corresponding body of another corporation;
3. The right to appoint directors of a company or parallel officers of another corporation, or the CEO of the corporation;
4. The right to participate in the corporation's profits;
5. The right to a share of the balance of the corporation's assets after the payment of its debts, on its liquidation.

"holding" and "acquisition", in respect of securities, voting power and the like – whether alone or with others, directly or indirectly, through a trustee, a trust company or a nominee company or in any other manner; in the case of holding or acquisition by a company – also by its subsidiary or by a company associated with it by implication; and in the case of holding or acquisition by an individual – the individual and his relatives who live with him or whose livelihoods depend on each other are deemed one person;

"holding or acquiring securities together with others" –

the holding or acquisition of securities in cooperation between two or more persons according to a written or verbal agreement; without derogating from the generality of the aforesaid, the following shall prima facie be deemed to be holding or acquiring securities jointly:

- (1) a body corporate that acquires securities (in this definition: body corporate) together with a party with an interest in it or with its associated company;
- (2) a person whose business is the holding or trading of securities on behalf of others, together with his client or with his relative who does not live with him, the livelihood of the one not depending on the other, for whom he holds and manages securities under a power of attorney, which gives him discretion in the use of the right to vote.
